THE PRESIDENT WELCOMES YOU

Wake Forest College offers able and honest students the opportunity to acquire education in the liberal arts, the sciences, law and medicine. Through the years thousands of young men have gone out from this campus to take their places as leaders in the life of the state and in the work of the world and to bring honor and praise to their Alma Mater.

We are glad to greet you as friends. We welcome you to the intellectual treasures of our library. We welcome you to our laboratories, classrooms, society halls, and art gallery. We welcome you to the gymnasium, stadium, and athletic fields. We welcome you to the fellowship of professors who are devoted to the advancement of learning and the intellectual and spiritual welfare of youth. We welcome you to all the resources, memories, traditions, and friendships that make up the Wake Forest spirit.

We salute you at the beginning of your college career. We think you have a love of learning, a respect for the integrity of the human mind, and a devotion to lofty moral ideals. Therefore, we are glad you are here for work, for play, for friendly fellowships, and for the discovery and development of the highest possibilities of your lives.

THURMAN KITCHIN, President.

HARDWICKE'S DELIVERS FROM 7 TO 11

THE DEAN'S MESSAGE

We salute you. We welcome you to Wake Forest College. Whether the future holds for you the preparation for war or peace or both we can only guess and hope. One matter is certain, however, that your college will continue as it has for more than a century to assist its students in every way possible that they may be prepared to meet the emergencies of life as they arise.

College men are more in demand for various types of commissions in the armed forces of the country than ever before. Government spokesmen have indicated with emphasis that young men in the colleges now, making preparation as guides and leaders of men, are helping the country more by gaining the necessary preparation than by immediate enlistment. They offer the V-1 plan and the army air corps plan by which young men in college may enlist at the beginning of their course, be placed on the inactive list with reasonable assurance that they may complete their college education before they are called into active duty.

Men in the various branches of the armed forces of the country and men in college are comrades in the common cause of defending the high ideals of the American way of life. We welcome you to the task.

D. B. BRYAN.

YOUR FRIEND, THE BURSAR, SPEAKS

To Each Member of the Class of 1946—
GREETINGS!

“Make check payable to Wake Forest College.” I have been saying that to freshmen for 35 years. I have seen boys so jittery they could hardly write check No. 1 in their new checkbook; had nonchalant 17-year-olds swagger up to the registration window and call me “Earnshaw”; even helplessly watched a budding musical genius keep a long line waiting while he took rumped dollar bills out of a paper sack, one by one, until he had dumped fifty dollars before me!

Is it any wonder that my hair, once thick and straight, has now been given a permanent wave—of farewell!

However, I hasten to add that, even after engineering seventy registrations, I still like my job. I like the upsurge of new faces, session after session, so I'm mighty glad you are here.

Since mine is one of the first faces you will see, maybe I'd better remind you that my name is Earnshaw. I mention it because many newcomers get it wrong. I was signing checks one afternoon while a salesman sat at the other side of the desk and watched me. Finally he exclaimed—hoping no doubt to get me in a good humor—“You sure do write a good hand! Not many people write their names so people can read them, Mr. Earnstein.”

Well, anyway, he got the first syllable right, and I think "Earn" is appropriate for a bursar—don't you? Certainly it comes in well when I have to pay off. However, I want to earn more than mere money; I want to earn the friendship of each student in Wake Forest College—especially the Class of 1946.

E. B. EARNSHAW.

TO THE CLASS OF 1946

This will serve as a second welcome from the Registrar's Office which has already been in correspondence with nearly all new men on the campus.

In order that our relations may be mutually helpful, it is suggested that all new students become familiar with the contents of the Catalogue, particularly the sections which are entitled General Information and Requirements for Degrees. Another helpful bit of information which is often overlooked is the introductory statement at the head of the section devoted to Courses of Instruction. It should be noted that one does not unceremoniously cease class attendance or withdraw from the College. If either of these moves should be contemplated, one should consult his adviser for guidance.

While each new man will be assigned to an adviser, the Registrar's Office will be pleased to be of all possible assistance at the opening of the session, and will welcome any student for a conference at any time during the year.

G. S. PATTERSON.

COACH JIM'S WORD

On behalf of the department of Athletics it gives me great pleasure to take this opportunity to welcome you incoming students to Wake Forest College.

It is my hope that your stay here will be as profitable to you as I am sure it will be pleasant.

Although you come from widely separated areas and leave behind many friends and loved ones, I am sure that within a few days you will be adjusted to your new surroundings and within a very short time will have grasped the spirit of these surroundings and will fall in line with others here, fast becoming good Wake Forest men proud to uphold her many honored traditions.

I hasten to suggest that you take part in some athletic activity during each of your years spent here, and I wish to assure you that if at any time during your stay here the personnel of the athletic department can be of any service to you whatsoever, either individually or collectively, that those in the department will only be too glad to render whatever service we may.

CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS

Literary Societies

Almost before Wake Forest College was dry behind the ears, the Literary Societies were established. And almost before the first teeth of the institution were growing, the organizations began to form the hub of campus activities. In those days, when it was virtually impossible to get to Raleigh, membership was compulsory, the new men divided equally between the Philomathesians and the Euzelians. Now joining is purely voluntary, resulting in an active participation in what the Phis and the Eus have to offer . . . chances for debating, oratory, and general all-around discussions on topics ranging from "The Place of the Wake Forest student in Russo-Japanese importation" to an inner review of "Pigeons and Their Ways."

Every fall each society tries to outdo the other. They give smokers, to which they invite all the women, half the men, and a faculty member. Free eats and smokes prevail, and when it is all over, everybody rushes to see who will do the cleaning up.

The Phis and the Eus meet once a week, at seven o'clock in their respective halls on the third floor of the administration building. In the fall they have their annual Society Day and at the beginning of the second semester, speakers are chosen from each group to compete for Foundation Day honors. Women are on hand.

Phi president Sam Behrends
Eu president Burnette Harvey

Monogram Club

In January, 1938, the Monogram Club was revived by "Red" McCarthy and "Scoop" Philips after nearly four years of temporary retirement. With a few others they realized the need of an honorary athletic organization on the campus. The movement gradually gained momentum until today the "W" Club, as it is often called, is one of the strongest and most active organizations on the campus.

The officers for this year are: Billy Primm, president; Ev "Lefty" Berger, vice-president; George Veitch, secretary and treasurer; John "Red" Cochran, sergeant-at-arms.

Glee Club

Known all over the South for its good singing the Wake Forest Glee Club, under the direction of Professor Thane McDonald, has kept up its reputation in the dozens of concerts it gives each year. In addition, there is an octet chosen by Professor McDonald which gives separate performances.

New men who enjoy singing with their fellow students and who can carry a tune are not only asked but urged to report for the first practice. Watch the bulletin board for further information.

HARDWICKE'S—WHERE STUDENTS MEET

The Band

The Wake Forest College Band offers a place and uniform to every man who can play a musical instrument. The band plays at most of the football games, at the basketball games, gives its annual Christmas concert and also has a concert in the spring.

Practice will begin during the first week of school and all men are urged to come out for the first call.

Cheer Leaders

Cheer leaders here at Wake Forest form an essential part of the student body, and much care is taken in selecting them. Realizing that there are many good freshmen eligible and capable for such a task, the selection of cheer leaders is left open until just before the first game.

During the first or second day of school there will be a call for all men interested to report. These men, under the guidance of last year's cheer leaders, will learn the yells, formation and devise new ones. From this group five new cheer leaders will be picked to serve with the old cheer leaders. Those men not selected will act as alternates, and everyone will be given an equal chance.

Debate Squad

Every year the Wake Forest College varsity debaters participate in scores of debates and several tournaments. As a general rule they return with several trophies. In order to keep up the reputation as good speakers the debaters work hard. All men who wish to become members of the team or improve their public speaking are welcome to join the squad at its weekly meetings.

REGISTERED DRUGGISTS AT HARDWICKE'S

PUBLICATIONS

Publications at Wake Forest consist of the OLD GOLD AND BLACK, THE STUDENT and the HOWLER. The first is the college newspaper, run by the students and for the students, and is issued once every week except holidays. This year's editor is Bob Gallimore. Everett Jones is the business manager.

THE STUDENT, the college magazine, is published six times during the school year. This periodical accepts contributions from the student body, and new men are welcome to assist Editor Herb Thompson on the editorial staff or Paul Bell on the business staff.

Ed Wilson was elected editor of this year's HOWLER, the Wake Forest annual, and Pat Sherrill will handle the business end.

COMPLETE DRUG NEEDS—HARDWICKE'S

WORD FROM THE PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

The most closely knit body of students on a college campus today is certainly a fraternity, composed of students with the same tastes, interests, and aims.

Such an organization requires continuous association and cooperation among the small group of men during the several years they spend together on the campus. Each member gets from it only what he is willing to give in time and effort.

As president of the Pan-Hellenic Council and on behalf of the fraternities of Wake Forest College, I extend you a hearty welcome. It is through you incoming students who will accept the invitation to pledge that the high standards set by those who have gone before will be carried on and advanced.

RAY MORRIS, Pi K A
Pres. of Pan-Hellenic Council.

RUSHING AGREEMENT FOR 1942-43

This agreement constitutes a by-law drafted in conformity with Article VIII of the Constitution of the Pan-Hellenic Council. It is intended to provide information to fraternity men and to rushees of the freshman class.

The fraternity activities through which fraternity men and freshmen become mutually acquainted and mutually decide upon extension of invitations to join and acceptance of these invitations, are called rushing.

Rushing may begin on the day of registration—September 8—and invitations shall be extended on the evening of October 6, at 7 P. M., at the Dean's office. Twenty-two hours prior to this time there shall be a silence period during which it shall be a violation of this agreement to contact any rushee about his choice of a fraternity or that he will be extended a bid. Any word, sign, gesture—direct or indirect by active member, inactive member or alumnus during this period shall be deemed a violation. The silence period ends upon dismissal from the Dean's office.

It shall be a violation of this agreement for freshmen to stay in fraternity quarters after 9 P. M. In case of freshmen living in fraternity dormitory or house, they shall leave the social hall at 9 P. M. Rushing everywhere is prohibited after 8:30 P. M.

These rules about times for rushing shall not apply on Saturday for chapter giving a smoker.

The only form of entertainment permitted during this rushing season shall be one smoker for each fraternity to be held in its social quarters between the hours of 7 and 11 P. M. Treating in any other manner shall be a violation of the agreement. The constitution of the council specifically bans banquets and dances.

On Tuesday, October 6, at 7 P. M., the freshmen who have been rushed shall report at the Dean's office to receive formal bids and to state the fraternity of their choice. The freshmen shall state their first, second, and third choices of fraternities. Each freshman shall commit himself as a pledge of a fraternity by signing the pledge book of the fraternity of his choice or shall sign himself as undecided. Freshmen will then report to the fraternity of their choice for the formal pledging ceremony and the acceptance of the pledge pin.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

Primarily concerned with meeting the social and religious needs of the students is the BAPTIST STUDENT UNION, an organization composed of the Sunday School, the Training Unions, the Christian Service Group, the Ministerial Conference and an Open Forum. This organization attempts merely to correlate the works of the local Baptist Church with the religious life of the students.

Many of you have already received letters from the BAPTIST STUDENT UNION, commonly called the BSU, inviting you to participate in these organizations which have as their aim, to aid you in achieving spiritual maturity.

Statistics show that most of the campus leaders are definitely allied with one or more of these organizations. You will be the future leaders of our campus and we encourage you to enlist in the religious activities offered.

Listed below are the members of the BSU Council, whose duty it is to direct these activities. These men will call on you personally and will be glad to help you orientate yourself into the life and spirit of Wake Forest:

COLLEGE ASSEMBLY

All freshmen are required to attend Chapel every Monday, Wednesday and Friday in the Church auditorium. The exercises are brief and are usually educational and devotional in character. Discussions by members of the faculty and visiting speakers, programs by student organizations and musical features make the assemblies enjoyable as well as profitable.

ABSENCES AND CUTS

Each student is allowed to "cut" or be absent from class without penalty as many times a semester as there are hours per week of that particular class. For example, English I is a three-hour course, and every man is allowed as many as three absences on that course without penalty.

Every man who is absent from a course because of illness, a death in the family, or for some other bona fide reason should make out a written statement of the hours missed and the reason and turn it over to the Dean immediately on his return to college.

Every student is warned not to drop courses without the explicit permission of the Dean and the Professor in charge of the course. To do otherwise means a call to the Dean's office. ,

The purpose of this committee is to make it easier for each member of the freshman class to become a worthwhile Wake Forest student. The Committee shall consider the case of any freshman who disregards any of the rules made by the Student Council for every first year man enrolled in the freshman class.

Every freshman is hereby warned to abide by these following rules:

1. Freshmen shall at all times speak to upper-classmen and to each other when passing them on the campus or in the town.

2. Freshmen must attend all pep meetings or athletic contests on the campus or have some valid excuse for not doing so. At all football games they are required to sit in a body and follow instructions of the cheerleaders.

3. Freshmen shall learn all College songs and yells.

4. Freshmen shall purchase the college colors as provided by the Student Council. These colors are to be worn at all times while in Wake Forest until the Council decides otherwise and at all athletic contests thereafter.

CAUSE FOR CONGRATULATION

Welcome! Freshmen. You are now members of the one hundred and ninth class to enroll at Wake Forest College. The entire student body congratulates you on your choice. Wake Forest will grow on you each day—the longer you stay here the better you will like it.

Each of you has a perfect record here. Now is the time to make your decisions, for formulating principles of conduct, and for building friendships which will last for your entire college career. Any student will be glad to aid you in any of your problems; this is the way that we can all work to make our college life more pleasant.

Again you are to be congratulated upon choosing Wake Forest as your school. We are looking forward to your cooperation with us in all of our endeavors.

THE HONOR SYSTEM

The Honor System at Wake Forest simply means that every man is on his honor as a gentleman to conduct himself in a manner to be expected of a gentleman and to report violations of this code of ethics on the part of others. It has grown up in the life of our college that men are more good than bad and, given an equal opportunity, will select the right in preference to the wrong; that self government is necessary in an institution training for citizenship in a democratic state, and individual responsibility adds effort and interest on the part of the individual. All students are on their honor to abstain from such acts as cheating, hazing, stealing and gambling; in other words, they are on their honor to do the right thing at all times and to abstain from the wrong.

The whole effort of those interested in student government at Wake Forest is bent toward making this a better place to spend four years. Let us cooperate, therefore, in the movement for better student government, better student life and a more ideal place in which to work.

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST

Dear old Wake Forest!
Thine is a noble name;
Thine is a glorious fame,
Constant and true.
We give thee of our praise,
Adore thine ancient days,
Sing thee our humble lays,
Mother, so dear.

Dear old Wake Forest!
Mystic thy name to cheer;
Be thou our guardian near,
Fore'er and aye.
We bow before thy shrine,
Thy brow that lays entwine,
All honor now be thine,
Mother, today.

HERE'S TO WAKE FOREST

Oh, here's to Wake Forest, a glass of the finest,
Red, ruddy Rhenish filled up to the brim!
Her sons they are many, unrivaled by any;
With hearts o'erflowing we will sing her hymn.

(Chorus)

Rah, Rah, Wake Forest, Rah!
Old Alma Mater's sons we are;
We'll herald her story and die for her glory.
Old Gold and Black is ever waving high.

As frosh we adore her, as sophs we explore her,
 And carve our names upon her ancient walls;
 As juniors patrol her, as seniors extol her,
 And weep to leave fore'er her sacred halls.

(Chorus)

Though fortune forsake us and fate o'ertake us,
 We'll ne'er forget our dear old college days,
 And o'er memory's treasure we'll drink without measure,

And sing fore'er our Alma Mater's praise.

(Chorus)
